

MUSIC-148: Music

Course Description:

Music Fundamentals is a course designed as a pre - theory course for the beginning music student who has a limited background or has no previous experience in music theory, the performance or the reading of music. The course will instruct the beginning learner with the very basic fundamentals of music theory, harmony, rhythm, form, composition and music reading.

Total Credits: 2.00

Course Competencies

- 1. Discuss the historical musical eras from 1400 to present.
- 2. Recognize prominent composition styles from historical music eras.
- 3. Describe the seven basic elements of music.
- 4. Analyze the seven basic elements of music within musical compositions.